*TNCH #562 "Take My Gifts"
vs. 1 & 3*

Take my gifts and let me love you,
God who first loved all of me,
gave me light and food and shelter,
gave me life and set me free,
now because your love has touched me,
I have love to give away,
now the bread of love is rising,
loaves of love to multiply!

Take whatever I can offer - gifts that I have yet to find,

skills that I am slow to sharpen,
talents of the hand and mind,
things made beautiful for others in the place where I must be:
take my gifts and let me love you,
God who first of all loved me.

Gathering Prayer

Congregation

ALL: O Holy One, in this time of remembrance and celebration, we offer our praise. As we think of the past and the future, we vow to walk in your ways. In times of triumph and times of challenge, a song of promise will keep ringing in and through us, as we continue to offer all our varied skills and arts; to preach your truth and participate in the sacraments; to foster faith and service; and to be who you've called us to be in this time and where we go from here. O Source of Life, your works are many and cannot be numbered. We pray in Jesus' name.

Amen.

John 15:12-17

This is my commandment, that you love one another as I have loved you. No one has greater love than this, to lay down one's life for one's friends. You are my friends if you do what I command you. I do not call you servants any longer, because the servant does not know what the master is doing, but I have called you friends, because I have made known to you everything that I have heard from my God. You did not choose me, but I chose you. And I appointed you to go and bear fruit, fruit that will last, so that my God will give you whatever you ask him in my name. I am giving you these commands so that you may love one another.

Living Deeply: The Art & Science of Transformation in Everyday Life

Marilyn Schlitz, Cassandra Vieten, and Tina Amorok, editors Seeing with New Eyes

A transformation in consciousness affects a kind of double vision in people. They see more than one reality at the same time, which gives a depth to both their experiences and to their response to the experience.

Stop and reflect for a moment. Looking back over your life, can you remember pivotal moments that broadened your perspective? Have there been times in your life that you identify as turning points – moments after which you saw the world in a more open and generous light? Have you ever felt connected to something greater than yourself, and in that connection felt self-centeredness slip away?

By understanding transformation, you'll be better able to navigate the enormous changes that face each of us every day of our lives. As a result, you may be able to shift what is difficult and challenging into opportunity and adventure.

"Let the River Run"

Let the river run, let all the dreamers wake the nations.

Come, the new Jerusalem.

Silver cities rise, the morning lights, the streets that lead them,

and sirens lead them on with a song.

It's asking for the taking, trembling, shaking.

Oh, my heart is aching.

We're coming to the edge, running on the water, coming
through the fog, your sons and daughters.

We, the great and small, stand on a star and blaze a trail of desire through the darkling dawn.

It's asking for the taking, trembling, shaking.

Oh, my heart is aching.

We're coming to the edge, running on the water, coming
through the fog, your sons and daughters.

Let the river run, let all the dreamers wake the nations.

Come, the new Jerusalem.

Come, the new Jerusalem.

Jesus' Prayer

The New Zealand Book of Prayer

ALL: Eternal Spirit, Earth-maker, Pain-bearer, Life-giver, Source of all that is and that shall be,
Father and Mother of us all, Loving God, in whom is heaven: The hallowing of your name echoes through the universe! The way of your justice be followed by the peoples of the world! Your heavenly will be done by all created beings! Your commonwealth of peace and freedom sustains our hope and comes on earth.
With the bread we need for today, feed us. In the hurts we absorb from one another, forgive us. In times of temptation and test, strengthen us. From trials too great to endure, spare us. From the grip of all that is evil, free us. For you reign in the glory of the power that is love, now and forever.

*TNCH #534 "O God of Strength"
vs. 1 & 4*

O God of strength, whose purpose, never swerving, shall make complete the work Christ has begun,

Grant us to join and
work with the disciples, filled with your strength
to see your will be done.

O God, whose grace
has called us to your service,
how good your thoughts toward us,

how great their sum!

We work with you, we go
where you will lead us,
until in all the earth
your reign shall come.

Song of Parting Congregation
TFWS #2279 "Trees of the Field"

You shall go out with joy
And be led forth with peace;
The mountains and the hills
Will break forth before you.

There'll be shouts of joy
And all the trees of the field
Will clap (👏), clap (👏), clap (👏) their hands.

And all the trees of the field
Will clap their hands (👏👏);
The trees of the field
Will clap their hands (👏👏);
The trees of the field
Will clap their hands (👏👏)
While you go out with joy.

You shall go out with joy
And be led forth with peace;
The mountains and the hills
Will break forth before you.
There'll be shouts of joy
And all the trees of the field
Will clap (👏), clap (👏), clap (👏) their hands.

And all the trees of the field

Will clap their hands (👏👏);

The trees of the field

Will clap their hands (👏👏);

The trees of the field

Will clap their hands (👏👏)

While you go out with joy.
