"We'll Be The Hands, We'll Be The Feet"

Open our hearts, open our minds,
Let us join together as we have been designed
Let Us grow more deeply into You,
Let us spread Your light and keep it shining through.

Each one of us, all around the earth
As a part of the body has our worth
We'll be the hands, We'll be the feet,
We'll circulate through the heart, where we all meet.
Built up in love, and joined as one.
Grown into Chrst, we'll see Your work through till it's done.

We will be strong, we'll live without fear
Emboldened by Your love, we will persevere
We will stand for truth, in justice we'll rejoice.
We will speak the Word for those who have no voice.

Each one of us, all around the earth
As a part of the body has our worth
We'll be the hands, We'll be the feet,
We'll circulate through the heart,
where we all meet.
Built up in love, and joined as one.
Grown into Chrst, we'll see Your work through 'till it's done

TNCH #542 “Born of God, Eternal Savior” vs. 2, 3, & 4

Christ, as you have lived for others,
so may we for others live;
Freely have your gifts been granted,
freely may your servants give.
All the wealth that we may gather is for use in causes just.
We are stewards of the bounty
loaned to us in solemn trust.

Come, O Christ, and reign among us,
granting love and joy and peace;
Hush the storm of strife and passion,
bid its cruel, discords cease.
By your patient years of toiling,
by your silent hours of pain,
Quench our fevered thirst for pleasure,
shame our selfish greed for gain.

See the Christ-like, host advancing,
high and lowly, great and small,
Linked in bonds of common service,
answering God's sacred call.
Jesus Christ, we hear your pleading that your people should be one.
Grant, O grant our hope's fruition;
here on earth, your will be done.

ALL: Gracious One, we seek you with all our hearts and minds. We welcome your grace that envelops us. Your love and light shield and empower us at all times. We seek to inspire each other to live with loving-kindness and gratitude. Enable us to discover the path of possibilities. May your holy presence grant us boldness and courage for the living of these days. We ask this in the name of Jesus.

Amen.

Biblical Witness

Pastor Felix Carrión

Mark 6:35 - 38

When it grew late, his disciples came to him and said, 'This is a deserted place, and the hour is now very late; send them away so that they may go into the surrounding country and villages and buy something for themselves to eat.' But he answered them, 'You give them something to eat.' They said to him, 'Are we to go and buy two hundred denarii worth of bread, and give it to them to eat?' And he said to them, 'How many loaves have you? Go and see.’ When they had found out, they said, ‘Five, and two fish.’ Then he ordered them to get all the people to sit down in groups on the green grass. So they sat down in groups of hundreds and of fifties. Taking the five loaves and the two fish, he looked up to heaven, and blessed and broke the loaves, and gave them to his disciples to set before the people; and he divided the two fish among them all. And all ate and were filled; and they took up twelve baskets full of broken pieces and of the fish.

Following the Example of the Good Steward

Taken from “Stewardship: Active Generosity” (website resource)

In exploring Jesus as the Good Steward, we’ve been introduced to a model for faithful living that embraces stewardship from a number of angles. Jesus’ teachings and embodiment of humility, service, compassion and sacrifice provide a clear framework for us to follow. As we navigate our lives in accordance with these principles, we become stewards not only of our personal time, talents and treasure, but also of love, justice, and the environment — a holistic approach that mirrors the example set by Jesus.

“We Come to Say Thank You”

Thank You, O God, we come to say, “Thank You.”

For all You’ve done, we say, “Thank You, thank You today for all the blessings You send our way.”

Thank You, O God, we come to say, “Thank You.”

For all You’ve done we say, “Thank You, thank You today for all the blessings You send our way.”

For the beauty of the earth, for the glories of the skies, for the love which from our birth over and around us lies.

For the wonder of each hour of each day and of the night, hill and vale and tree and flower, sun and moon and stars of light, stars of heavenly light.

Thank You, O God, we come to say, “Thank You.”

For all You’ve done, we say, “Thank You, thank You today for all the blessings You send our way.”

For the joy of human love, brother, sister, parent, child, friends on earth and friends above, for all gentle thoughts and mild.

For Thy self, best gift divine, to our race so freely giv'n, for the great, great love of Thine, peace on earth and joy in heav'n, endless joy in heav'n!

Thank You, O God, we come to say, "Thank You."

For all You've done, we say, "Thank You, thank You today for all the blessings You send our way."

Thank you, O God we come to say, "Thank You."

For all You've done, we say, "Thank You, thank You today for all the blessings You send our way."

For all the blessings You send, we thank You, God.

We thank You, God.

*TNCH #495 "Called as Partners in Christ's Service"
vs. 1, 2, & 4*

Called as partners in Christ's service,
Called to ministries of grace,
We respond with deep commitment

Fresh new lines of faith to trace.
May we learn the art of sharing,
Side by side and friend with friend,
Equal partners in our caring
To fulfill God's chosen end.

Christ's example, Christ's inspiring,
Christ's clear call to work and worth,
Let us follow, never faltering,
Reconciling folk on earth.
Men and women, richer, poorer,
All God's people, young and old,
Blending human skills together
Gracious gifts from God unfold.

So God grant us for tomorrow
Ways to order human life
That surround each person's sorrow
With a calm that conquers strife.
Make us partners in our living,
Our compassion to increase,

Messengers of faith, thus giving
Hope and confidence and peace.
