PRAYER OF ST. FRANCIS OF ASSISI Missy R. White

Lord, make me an instrument of your peace:
where there is hatred, let me sow love;
where there is injury, pardon;
where there is doubt, faith;
where there is despair, hope;
where there is darkness, light;
where there is sadness, joy.

O divine Master, grant that I may not so much seek
to be consoled as to console,
to be understood as to understand,
to be loved as to love.

For it is in giving that we receive,
it is in pardoning that we are pardoned,
and it is in dying that we are born to eternal life.
Amen.

OBITUARY

Celebrating the Life Of John White

It is with sorrow that we announce the passing of John C. White on January 31, 2024 where he passed peacefully at his home surrounded by family in Tomball, Texas. He was born to parents Watt & Betty White on January 14, 1936, in Enid, Oklahoma & went on to live a full and enriching life.

He is survived by his loving wife, Linda L. White whom he was married to on March 22nd, 1958 & this year would have been their 66th anniversary. They had 4 children, 5 grandchildren & 3 great grandchildren that he loved with all his heart. A man of strong character and kind heart, John lived a life full of ambition, purpose, and love for his family.

He always had an amazing work ethic & started working for a Houston based Oil & Gas Company, Magcobar in 1959 where he started off on the oil rigs & worked his way up the corporate ladder quickly, eventually earning the title of Head of Executive Sales for the Western Hemisphere. He worked there until 2010 before he eventually retired.

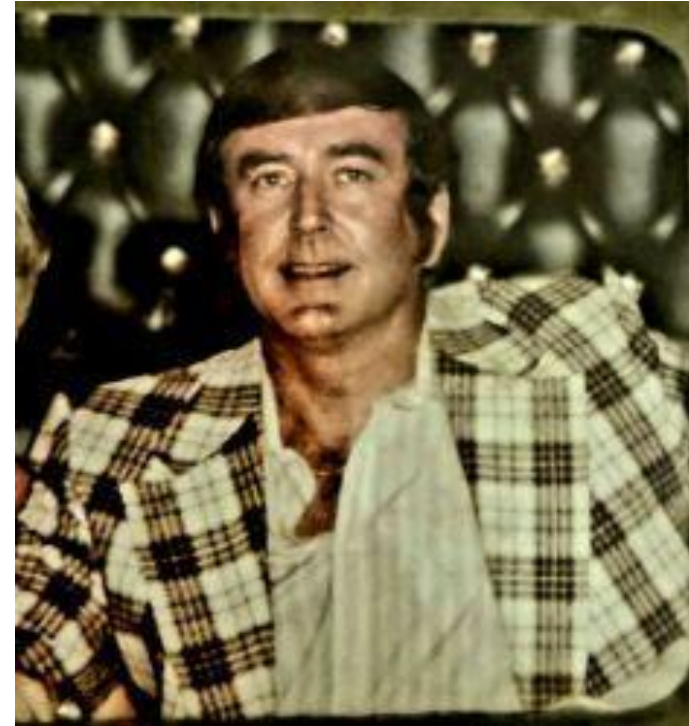

When he wasn't at work, he loved coming home to the house that he & Linda designed & built in 1974 on 5 beautiful wooded acres in Magnolia, Texas. He loved being outdoors & loved working on the property, always tending to the landscape, garden, greenhouse & several building projects, & even the pool looked pristine & inviting all year round. They lived there for 45 years.

A devoted husband, father, grandfather & great-grandfather, he had an unwavering spirit & an infectious sense of humor that brought light to even the darkest situations. He was a fiercely loyal & loving & as a man of integrity, he could always be counted on to do the right thing.

We bid farewell to John, acknowledging the remarkable man he was. His influence will continue to radiate in our lives despite his absence. His legacy lives on in our hearts.

John is survived by his wife, Linda White of 66 years. He is also survived by his son, John M White, daughter, Ami Lyn White, his sisters Jane Weeks & Judy Livingston & brother-in-law, Alan Livingston. He is also survived by his grandchildren John Christopher White (Chris), Melissa White (Missy), Chase White, & Brianna Jones- White (Max) & his 3 great grandchildren Damien White, Darien White & Kanan White. John was predeceased by his parents Watt & Betty White, his daughter Cathy Lyn White-O'Daniel, his son Steve White & his other brother-in-law, Al Weeks.
